SCHOOL FOR INTERNATIONAL
TRAINING

STUDY ABROAD

NOT YOUR ORDINARY STUDY ABROAD

SIT is a leader in immersive, field-based study abroad programs for undergraduates. Over a semester or a summer, engage in experiential, place-based learning that addresses today's most Critical Global Issues, from climate change to human identity, geopolitics to global health, and more. You'll find accredited programs in Africa, Asia and the Pacific, Europe, Latin America, and the Middle East, as well as comparative International Honors Programs (IHP) spanning four continents.

Extraordinary SIT opportunities include:

- Independent research supported by world-class faculty advisors
- Skills- and career-building internships at local, regional, and global organizations
- Homestays for cultural and community immersion
- Language-learning from Afrikaans to isiZulu
- Academically rigorous coursework through a decolonial lens
- Excursions that take learning beyond the walls of the classroom
- Expert academic and program directors, local faculty, and staff
- 24/7 student support services

Experiential goes beyond the experience. SIT programs are deeply grounded in the experiential learning cycle of collective learning, reflection, and application. Building on 90 years of intercultural education and exchange programming, we maintain deep and meaningful partnerships with communities, institutions, and changemakers around the world.

Choose SIT for a transformative, extraordinary study abroad experience.

PROGRAM MODELS

Life-changing learning in an immersive setting

SIT's immersive programs provide life-changing learning opportunities. Each program curriculum is designed around a Critical Global Issue, providing you a range of perspectives through world-class faculty, deep institutional partnerships, homestays, language-learning, and independent research.

IMMERSIVE SEMESTER PROGRAM MODEL

SUMMER PROGRAM MODEL

IHP offers a comparative approach

International Honors Programs integrate experiential learning across four continents, with an emphasis on multidisciplinary analysis of issues and culminating in a comparative research project.

IHP / MULTI-COUNTRY PROGRAM MODEL

CRITICAL GLOBAL ISSUES

Confront Critical Global Issues through your study abroad experience

SIT programs are developed around a framework of the most Critical Global Issues (CGI) of our time so that the next generation of changemakers has the expertise and intercultural understanding they need to engage all identities, perspectives, and cultures with respectful, enduring, and meaningful responses. Explore SIT's complete CGI framework at:

studyabroad.sit.edu/critical-global-issues

CLIMATE & ENVIRONMENT

Few contemporary challenges are as urgent or contested as climate change and its impact on our environment. The collective efforts of scientists, scholars, politicians, activists, indigenous communities, and concerned citizens are needed to gauge and mitigate environmental and social impacts. Our programs reflect this diversity of perspectives. Natural science-based programs explore global hotspots, with a focus on ecology, biodiversity, and conservation. Social science-based programs emphasize environmental justice. Students in all programs develop the knowledge and skills to become leaders in shaping environmental policies and balancing ecological outcomes for an uncertain future.

DEVELOPMENT & INEQUALITY

Pervasive inequality impacts individuals and communities worldwide. Where historic development practices have fallen short of lasting change, local responses offer innovative solutions to build more sustainable futures. Our programs explore these efforts to balance ecological sustainability, economic opportunity, and gender equity alongside the complexities of growth-centric development. Students become deeply aware of what it means to confront inequality as they witness firsthand the work of people engaged in creating more just and fair societies.

EDUCATION & SOCIAL CHANGE

Unequal access to quality education inhibits the potential of millions of girls and women, indigenous populations, people with disabilities, displaced persons and refugees, and communities living in conflict areas. Intercultural, international-based education connects and engages communities as it values differences, confronts inequality, and recognizes common struggles. Our programs develop reflective educational leaders who can open up the world to new generations, advocate for local agency and intercultural communication, and support transformative settings where self-empowerment and human potential can flourish.

GEOPOLITICS & POWER

Power shifts and power plays challenge outmoded geopolitical models that are failing to ensure global security and stability. Disruptions, though tumultuous, create spaces to interrogate the politics of the past and construct alternative systems of power. Our programs explore the many shocks to the system that give rise to regional independence movements, new forms of populism rife with old nationalisms, and illiberal democracies, and ask, “What next?” Students gain nuanced perspectives from leading political scientists, diplomats, policymakers and civic activists who are engaged in reimagining our political future.

GLOBAL HEALTH & WELL-BEING

Healthcare science and health systems worldwide are adapting, expanding, or straining to address the complex and varying needs of vulnerable and underserved populations: children, women, gender minorities, refugees and displaced persons, the elderly, the mentally ill, and the economically disadvantaged. Our programs explore the potential of using both indigenous and new science and technology to support vulnerable populations, as well as the limitations and possibilities of contrasting health policy initiatives at the intersections of regional and local governments, global and community organizations, and traditional and indigenous approaches. Students examine the medical and social determinants of health and well-being in urban and rural settings to understand how health careers, policies, and programs can best support those in dire need.

IDENTITY & HUMAN RESILIENCE

The human condition is in change. Human rights and identity. War. Climate change. Economic disparities. Discrimination. Indigenous and marginalized individuals are exploring what it means to be different and equal in a complicated world, and those under pressure from their environment are on the move with mixed migration challenging national, communal, and personal identities. Our programs explore the human condition and the crisis of belonging in an increasingly complex and mobile world. Students gain critical insight on the phenomena of resilience and resistance through listening to the voices of indigenous people and marginalized groups.

PEACE & JUSTICE

Conflict—incited by structural inequality, migration, identity and exclusion, resource scarcity, and historical trauma—manifests through war, revolution, and other forms of violent and coercive mobilization. In the face of this reality, the prospect of long-term peace often seems unattainable. Our programs explore how changemakers manage conflict constructively, balance reconciliation and justice, and support post-conflict remembrance and healing. Students evaluate the root causes of conflict to develop evidence-based strategies designed to transform our world into one that is more peaceful and just.

FINANCING YOUR STUDY ABROAD

SCHOLARSHIPS & GRANTS

SIT is committed to helping students from diverse economic backgrounds experience field-based international education. In the past three years, we have awarded an average of more than $1.3 million in scholarships and grants to SIT Study Abroad students. Our scholarships are awarded to highly qualified students who demonstrate financial need. Individual awards generally range from $500–$3,000 for summer programs and up to $5,000 for semester programs. Learn more about applying for scholarships and grants to fund your study abroad at: studyabroad.sit.edu/scholarships.

SIT PROGRAM PROTECTION

SIT is an investment in your future.
Here's how we help you protect it.

As you build a strong foundation for your future, you can invest with confidence in SIT. We are committed to protecting your investment in case of program suspensions due to health, safety, or security concerns. As an SIT student, you are entitled to protective measures, which, depending on circumstances, may include refunds, reimbursements, or options to change programs or defer. Learn more about how SIT protects your investment at: studyabroad.sit.edu/sit-program-protection.

ACCREDITATION

ACCREDITATION

SIT is accredited by the New England Commission of Higher Education (formerly the Commission on Institutions of Higher Education of the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, Inc.). Inquiries regarding the accreditation status should be directed to the administrative staff of SIT. Individuals may also contact NECHE.

SIT has been approved to participate in the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements. Learn more about SIT's accreditation at: sit.edu/academics/accreditation.

STUDENT SUPPORT

OUR COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY, EQUITY, INCLUSION & ACCESS

School for International Training promotes a learning environment where diversity is a source of strength and where every individual is valued as an important contributor toward the accomplishment of its mission. In accordance with this mandate, and as a reflection of World Learning's commitment to promoting intercultural understanding, social justice, and world peace, SIT, as World Learning's institution of higher education, strives to create a learning and teaching environment that is composed of people from different backgrounds and that maximizes the potential of each person.

RESPECT & RESPONSIBILITY

A primary goal of SIT Study Abroad is to promote understanding among people from different parts of the world. This can only be realized if SIT students are committed to respecting others and taking responsibility for their own actions. SIT maintains a set of clear policies regarding student behavior, which are outlined in our Student Handbook: studyabroad.sit.edu/student-handbook.

STUDENT HEALTH, SAFETY & WELL-BEING

SIT places the highest priority on student safety and well-being. Our Office of Student Health, Safety & Wellbeing (SHSW) is a team of student affairs professionals fully dedicated to supporting students across a wide range of safety and well-being issues. The SHSW team is dedicated to ensuring that students thrive during their time abroad.

This team works in partnership with program staff onsite to provide safety and security guidance, emergency response, and crisis management. They also work directly with students on various aspects of their study abroad experience, such as counseling and mental health support, cultural adjustment and homesickness, diversity and inclusion, disability support, academic accommodations, international insurance, and much more.

SIT is committed to fostering a climate across all of our programs that is free from sexual- and gender-based discrimination, harassment, and violence. We maintain Sexual Harassment and Misconduct policies to protect and support students during their time abroad. We also provide relevant training and material to in-country staff, and we have a dedicated Title IX Coordinator. More information is available at: studyabroad.sit.edu/sexual-safety-title-IX.
